Greetings,

As chairman of the Lee County Board of Commissioners, I would like to welcome you to the Lee County BRAC website. We are an all-American community dedicated to faith, family and country. The citizens of Lee County are very proud of our military families and are committed to supporting the men and women who defend our freedom. We are glad to have you visit our website.

Most of you will be stationed at Ft. Bragg. The State of North Carolina and the communities surrounding Ft. Bragg are planning and preparing for your arrival. In an effort to provide you with an insight about the quality of life in Lee County, we have developed a website that we hope you will find useful. It is through this website that you can learn "About Lee County" and view an "Activity Map" of area attractions. Links are provided to direct you to information on schools, government, medical care and other relevant topics to help you learn about our community. Please take the time to visit our websites you will enjoy the glimpse of what life is like in Lee County.

Welcome, we are here to assist you.

Warmest Regards,
